

2008 Three Degrees Pinot Noir

- 88 pts. — Wine Spectator
Firm in texture, with earthy tones around dark berry and spice flavors, lingering against mildly grippy tannins. Drink now through 2014. 3,000 cases made. — HS

Arsheen Pinot Gris

2007

- 89 pts. — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar (April, 2008)
"Light silver. Fresh and racy, displaying clean lemon and grapefruit aromas along with white pepper and fresh herbs. Light and precise, offering mouthwatering citrus and green apple flavors, with bracing minerality adding focus. Precise and very easy to drink" — Josh Reynolds
- "EXCELLENT" — Wine Press Northwest (Winter 2008/2009)

2006

- "RECOMMENDED!" — Wine Press Northwest (Winter 2007/2008)

Jamsheed Pinot Noir

2008

- 90 pts. — Wine Advocate

2007

- "Recommended" — Sommelier Journal (May, 2009)
- 90 pts. — Wine Spectator
"Polished and lively, with pretty currant, plum and floral aromas and flavors on a light, racy frame, finishing with mouthwatering acidity and plenty of fruit. Drink now through 2012. 4,000 cases made." — H.S.
- "Most popular Restaurant Wine." — Wine and Spirits
- Bargain Pinot 09-10 — Wine Spectator
"It's not very often that you find excellent Pinot Noir for $25 or less, but these three Oregon examples (two of them at 90 points) are worth the search. All three are made in reasonable quantities, so you should be able to track them down." MAYSARA Jamsheed Pinot. McMinnville (90, $25) Light, racy; currant, plum, flowers. — Bruce Sanderson

2006

- 90 pts. — Wine Spectator (December, 2008)
"Light and fragrant, with pretty floral overtones to the cherry and roasted meat flavors, lingering softly on the seamless finish. Drink now through 2014." — HS
- "HIGHLY RECOMMENDED!" — Northwest Palate (Sept/Oct 2008)
- "OUTSTANDING!" — Wine Press Northwest (Winter 2008/2009)

2005

- 93 pts. — Justwinepoints, Wine X Magazine (April, 2007)
- 90 pts. — "Best Value", Wine Spectator (December, 2007)
- "EXCELLENT!" — Wine Press Northwest (Winter 2007/2008)

Delara Pinot Noir

2006

- 90 pts. — WINE ADVOCATE (October, 2008)
"Barrel selections of which 16 were chosen with 56% of the oak being new. Dark Ruby colored, the wine has enticing nose of black cherry, black raspberry, pain grille, mineral and spice box. This leads to a layered wine with plump savory fruit, some structure, good concentration, and excellent length. Give it 3-4 years to evolve and drink it from 2012-2021." — Dr. Jay Miller

2005

- 97 pts. — Justwinepoints, Wine X Magazine (April, 2007)
- "OUTSTANDING!" — Wine Press Northwest (Winter 2007/2008)
- 90 pts. — Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar (May/Jun '08)
- 90 pts. — WINE ENTHUSIAST (November, 2008)
"...The wine is a block selection, and it is still rather tightly wound, despite the extra time in bottle. The fruit is dark and laden with exotic spices, and as you dive into the flavors you find smoke, licorice, earth and rock. This is a wine that would be quite interesting to age, but if you drink it now, be sure to spend time with it, as it runs through its delightful changes. Decanting is highly recommended." — PG

2004

- 91 pts. — Patrick Comiskey, Wine & Spirits writer — Wine Review Online (09/26/06)
- 90 pts. — Wine Spectator (12/15/06)